Humanity by John Johnson

Verse:

It was a long night, something wrong
But there's always light after the dawn
Don't want to do what we're told
Too far to go before you get old

Verse:

Spent half the morning talking to a man
About ending the war and saving the land
Turns out he has a weapons factory
That is dumping chemicals into a stream

Chorus:

Oh humanity, oh humanity, oh the humanity
Their all liars, I'm so tired

Verse:

Protesting under a flag
The tail came out to make the dog wag
There's cops and clubs and the FBI
And a man from the press, I don't trust that guy

Verse:

Hear the yell, a real hard case
Truth and profanity rush from his face
Two politicians with cheesy grins
Try to empty the pool before we know how to swim

Chorus:

Verse:

Next morning I was bailed from jail
The radio says 'there's a water bed sale'
We all thought we struck a chord for peace
But our lawyer took the credit before we were released

Verse:

The Lilliputians could hold down a giant
Even the small can be defiant
Ain't no fairy tales today
The bad guys just never go away

Chorus:

Close:

La la la la la liars
They lied to you yesterday
They'll lie to you today
They'll lie to you tomorrow
They'll keep on lying as long as you follow
