Brother
by John Johnson

Brother I haven't seen you
For a long time
I'm surprised to see you here
Still outside

Hey Brother are you OK
Sitting here in this door
Are you still chasing the demons you brought back from the war

You taught me so many lessons
About how to be brave
You were always so strong
When I needed to be saved

Break

Brother it's only money
I'll give you what I have
But keep it for yourself
Don't let them steal from you again

But Brother, I understand
You have other things to do
But just remember
I'll always be there for you
