

John Woog Johnson
6464 Dillon Drive #106
Pueblo, Colorado 81008
719-214-0674
johnwoog@undertoad.com

60 Cycle Hum

by John Woog Johnson

Here I go and there I've been Can't remember what I've seen
Who I was when in between
Kinda makes you feel so free
Willows are last to drop their leaves
Such a slow orgasmic release
Who are we meant to be
Kinda makes you feel so free

Chorus:
Excuse me sir does this road go back home
He says, "I don't know where you're coming from"
I live where the power is up above.
He said, "Turn left at the sixty cycle hum"

In the north there's snow and trees
In the South they have killer bees
You never know who to please
Kinda makes you feel so free
Lovers begin to feel the squeeze
From their shoulders down to their knees
Rivers always turn into seas
Kinda makes you feel so free

Chorus:

On a bus trying not to sneeze
Think I might move to Belize
Things always happen in threes
Kinda makes you feel so free
One last thing before I flee
Are you comfortable with me
Sometimes I'm not as I seem
Kinda makes you feel so free

Chorus: