Scream
by John Johnson

Everything changes color
In the early morning light
That's why I'm always out there
Walking around at night
Politics and religion don't mean a damn to me
Just show me reality
That's all I want to see

Chorus:

There's an evil coming down
Woke up when I screamed
It's so real in the dark
But at least you're here with me

You say you want a lover
I guess that's OK
We all need a destination
At the end of the day
But I don't want to tell you
What might be a lie
Don't want you to hate me
If I have to say goodbye

Chorus:

You better take a map
If you're gonna use that road
There are ditches and cliffs
That might easily erode
If I see you there tomorrow
I'll hold you oh so tight
We might just make it
If we make it through the night

Chorus:
