100 miles out of Josie
by John Johnson

Verse:

You said that I was worthless
You said I was a bum
You tried to keep me at home
Right there under your thumb
But now you should be happy
When I give you the news
I'm 100 miles out of Josie
And headed back home to you

Chorus:

I'm 100 miles out of Josie
So baby don't be sad
I didn't think things could get much worse
But I found a new level of bad
It's time to cheer up darlin'
So don't you be alarmed
I'm 100 miles out of Josie
And right back in your arms

Verse:

I know we fought like bobcats
The scratchin' and the fangs
I'd always spy your evil eye
Looking out beneath your bangs
But things are different now my dear
So put that gun away
I'm 100 miles out of Josie
And I've come back here to stay

Chorus:

Verse:

When I left you burned my stuff
And smashed my car with rocks
You screwed the entire neighborhood
And changed all the locks
But life's a cycle circular
Everything comes back to ground
I'm gonna make you a lot less crazy
This time around

Chorus:
