Martha

by John Johnson

Verse:

You're a worrisome beast
You're the most and you're the least
You've got secrets that nobody knows
You take what you can get
You lie to me and yet
I still want to go where you go

Verse:

I know you fool around
Cause it's all over town
And all the guys smile when you go by
You do a lot of drugs
But I let you off because I need ya but I still don't know why

Chorus:

Oh hell Martha don't worry me no more
You're my woman, I know that you do
Oh hell Martha I don't love you anymore
But I'm addicted, I'm addicted to you

Verse:

I feel real sad
Cause ya treat me so damn bad
But then maybe I'm in to the pain
I feel real low
About as far as I can go
I want to leave ya till I see you again

Chorus
