Foggy Bottom Blues
by John Johnson

Verse:

You got the foggy bottom blues
If you win or if you lose
And it doesn't really matter
If you don't or if you do
You heard howling at midnight
Under an orange striped sky
And don't feel a thing
When a lonely girl starts to cry
Everybody loves tomorrow
And wish that yesterday would die
Can't lose a foggy bottom feeling
When you're dreams have said goodbye

Chorus:

Where are you, along the trail
You're not alone, you're not in jail
You're not below, you're not above
Think you're in love

Heart's about to burst
My eyes fade to black
Says she'll save some time for me
But there's nothing worse than that
I'm slavin' for the man
But he doesn't know my name
A face just like an angel
Is ignoring me again
I've looked from high places
Pointed steel to my skull
But then maybe there's someone
Not the same as every one

Chorus:

You got the foggy bottom blues
With evil in your eye
I wish they'd all just go away
And leave me here awhile
I have thoughts i should be thinkin'
Of the beginning and the end
I may be here to view an image
That won't pass this way again
There are times we can't remember
And times to far to see
When i finally understand this stuff
It'll be my time to leave

Closer:

Beware the foggy bottom blues
