It's a fockin' A
by John Woog Johnson

I like hard rock music
I like Reggae too
And for four days in June
Everybody like the Blues

I like improv comedy
Props are sometimes OK
But is it an original act
if you bought it on Ebay
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A

I like spring and Summer
Fall and Winter blows
It's hard to sound intelligent with cement in your nose

I like Princess Laia
No one likes Jar Jar Binks
Can't they tell in post production
When some things really stinks
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A

Everybodies comin' round and callin' on the phone
Was that thing a pigeon or maybe it's a drone
If Santa ain't power hungry why's he got a throne
Chicago's got a space ship while Georgia's got a dome
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A

Fockin' A page 2

My cats back is archie
Archie's back is slouched
Hey you, stop smokin' that bowl
And get up off the couch

I like songs like this one
No one knows what they mean
When you got on your favorite blue shirt
Your wife says put on green
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
It's a fockin' A
