Hitler's Dead
by John Johnson

Verse:

Been wandering lost for a long, long time
A snicker in the hall, a shove in line
They all look at you as if you were dead
Demons haunt you in your head

Chorus:

Hey kids, Hitler's dead
He was wrong before and he's wrong again
Jupiter, Saturn, Venus, Mars
There ain't no room on Earth for war

Laurels placed on Aryan males
Cannons boom, voices wail
Bigots fog blurs your eyes
Heart of stone, thinning mind

Chorus:

A cowards folly in your hand
Fire will never make you a man
A martyr doesn't take the crowd
A hero would have gone alone
