

John Woog Johnson
6464 Dillon Drive #106
Pueblo, Colorado 81008
719-214-0674
johnwoog@undertoad.com

Stranger*
by John Johnson

Verse:

Waiting is till fullness comes
Searching for the road to love
Ares has no mind for war
Back in the nest it's safe and warm

Chorus:

It's cold and dark
Beyond the lock
Do you grok?

Verse

How green our planet and dull our minds
A suicide flight into the light
Come and crawl deep inside
Watch your ancient fears unwind

Chorus:

Reality
Can leave it's mark
Do you grok?

Verse:

I eat you, drink you, know you more
Than any life I've lived before
We are, they are, thou art God
Cherish the flesh you ride upon

Chorus:

Only two
Can ride the arc
Do you grok?

Verse:

Waiting is till fullness comes
Never thirst we drink as one
Pull in a tip and give 'em a show
The father is always last to know

Chorus:

We all must take
That final walk
Do you grok?

*Based on the book Stranger in a Strange Land by Robert Heinlein