“Wish”
(John Woog Johnson)

Wish there was someplace for me to be
Already seen everything there is to see on TV
Wish there was someplace for me to go
Ain't nowhere I want to go alone
Sometimes it's hard to be me
Yeah sometimes me is pretty hard to be

We all want to fall in love
That's mostly what we all are thinking of
We fight so hard to get it on
Then spend our time worrying about what's wrong
It's by fate that we ever meet
What's the odds of ever feeling complete

They say it's hard to be a man
They say a man has to have a plan
A man has to know which way to go
Whole lotta stuff for a man to know
I don't know what all of this means
Sometimes it all just seems like dreams

I was looking for mountains when there was just wind
Returning to places that I hadn't been Lost in a meadow without a sunrise
Seeing no light in anyone's eyes
Through enlightening ways beyond galaxies
Look for reality in what you can't see
